Music Notes: Offertory Hymn Ubi Caritas

The Latin text of “Ubi caritas et amor” speaks of Christian love perhaps more than any other Latin text in the Catholic liturgy. The poet is unknown, but may be a French Catholic writing shortly after the first Millennium. “Where charity and love are, God is there also; since the love of God has brought us together, let us rejoice, love the living God, and love one another with sincerity.” It continues with two other verses in the same ideal vein. The music to this antiphon, likewise, strikes ears both at the time of its writing and today with subtle comfort. It occupies the sixth mode of medieval music, and proceeds largely in simple stepwise motion into clearly distinguished cadences. Both the simplicity and the calm of musical expression, again, suit the intimate and reverent human love re-enacted in the liturgy, and the divine love that inspires and leads it.

The 10th in the Cathedral ornament series is available at the rear of the church or on the cathedral website: www.savannahcathedral.org The 2016 ornament features the St. George and the Dragon lancet window. It is the second window from the right under the south transept window of the Assumption. St. George is the Patron Saint of England and Georgia was an English colony. Hence there is a window devoted to him in the Cathedral of St. John the Baptist.

Some Sundays during this Jubilee Year of Mercy, something from the scriptures just leaps out as most appropriate. The end of today's Gospel presents one such instance. At the end of the Good Samaritan story, the answer to the question about who was neighbor the robber's victim is “The one who treated him with mercy.” As we continue our prayer together today, let us ask for God's grace to help us to be merciful to all our neighbors.

Come Discuss Confessions by Saint Augustine

When: July 21st 10:15-11:45 AM (5 weeks)

Where: Parish Hall Library room

Information: threenovacks@gmail.com

"The son of a pagan father and a Christian mother, Saint Augustine spent his early years torn between conflicting faiths and world views. His Confessions, written when he was in his forties, recount how, slowly and painfully, he came to turn away from his youthful ideas and licentious lifestyle, to become instead a staunch advocate of Christianity and one of its most influential thinkers. A remarkably honest and revealing spiritual autobiography, the Confessions also address fundamental issues of Christian doctrine, and many of the prayers and meditations it includes are still an integral part of the practice of Christianity today."

Read ahead for the September Book Club : The Brothers Karamazov by Dostoevsky

Second Collection Next Weekend

Next week, our parish will take up a collection for the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa. While the Church in Africa is growing, many still lack access to basic resources and pastoral care. Many suffer due to high rates of poverty and unemployment, illiteracy, and poor education. The Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa supports pastoral projects that foster lasting peace and reconciliation in a continent often marked by division and tension.
