FORTY YEARS OF PRIESTHOOD

Next Sunday, July 9, 2017, will be the fortieth anniversary of ordination to the priesthood of my brother, Monsignor Chris Schreck. Since he is going to be in Savannah at that time, I have asked him to celebrate the 11:30 Mass at the Cathedral. So, if you happen to attend that Mass and you hear them say “our celebrant for this Mass is Monsignor Scheck,” it does not mean that I was promoted during the previous week!

It is hard to believe how fast the time passes, isn’t it? It seems like only yesterday that our family gathered at the Cathedral for the ordination. It was a scorcher that day, over 100 degrees, and the air conditioning in the Cathedral was not working! We could tell that this was a special day because my mother was not in the choir loft playing the organ! It was probably one of the few ceremonies at the Cathedral for which she didn’t play. Bishop Raymond W. Lessard was in just his fourth year as Bishop of Savannah and he ordained Chris.

For the first five years of his priesthood, Chris served as the Parochial Vicar at St. James Parish on the south side of town. After those five years, he was sent by Bishop Lessard to teach Sacred Scripture at St. Vincent de Paul Seminary in Boynton Beach, Florida. After a few years there, Chris returned to school to complete his doctorate in Sacred Theology at the Catholic University of Leuven, Belgium. During his four years there, I was studying in Rome, and we would occasionally meet for a weekend in Germany! When Chris returned home, he became the Academic Dean at St. Vincent de Paul. After a few years, he was offered a position to teach Scripture at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary in Philadelphia and he did that for ten years, also serving as the Vice Rector of the Seminary. About five years ago he became the Rector of the Pontifical College Josephinum in Columbus, Ohio and he continues to serve there today. So, the majority of Chris’s priesthood has been spent teaching and forming priests for the church in the United States.

Please join me next week in welcoming him back home to the Cathedral, where he grew up and where he was ordained 40 years ago.

Rev. J. Gerard Schreck
Rector
Gathered here at God’s invitation, we are disciples awaiting a word from God. So today we will hear more about what it means to be a disciple of Jesus: We are to love Christ above all, and to take up our cross. Yet we do not do this alone. We have our community of faith to support us, even if it is only with a cup of cold water. Let us pray today that our sense of discipleship may be straightened and deepened.

ADORATION CHAPEL WILL BE CLOSED THIS WEEK, JULY 3 TO 7.

Georgia Southern Campus Ministry

It is the mission of the Catholic Eagles to engage in bible studies, fellowship, apologetics, and to help them get involved at Mass. St. Matthew Parish supports this effort by offering a 6:00 PM University Mass each Sunday evening during Fall and Spring semesters. Students are offered a free home-cooked meal after every University Mass, which provides a great opportunity for the missionaries to meet students and invite them to bible studies and other events. This Mass is student-centered, with students serving as lectors, Extraordinary Eucharist ministers, ushers and in the choir. We also offer a weekly Holy Hour on Tuesday evenings so students can come spend an hour with Jesus.
