HAPPY FATHER’S DAY

On this weekend we want to thank God for our fathers, and celebrate their indispensa-able role in our lives. With quiet strength, courage, faith, patience and compassion our fathers have protected and supported us. I was fortunate to have had one of the best God ever made, and today is a day for me to remember him especially at Mass. For all fathers who have gone before us to God’s heavenly kingdom, we offer the sacrifice of the Mass today.

We pray today for all fathers who are now in the midst of their most important role of leading and protecting their families, and especially new fathers, that they may be strengthened in their faith and filled with the gift of wisdom. May God bless them all!

“God our Father,

In your wisdom and love you made all things.

Bless these men,

That they may be strengthened as Christians Fathers.

Let the example of their faith and love shine forth.

Grant that we, their sons and daughters,

May honor them always

With a spirit of profound respect.

Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen”
Today we are gathered at Eucharist to celebrate the meaning of the Eucharist. Today’s solemnity is called the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Let us pay particular attention to the words and gestures at today’s Mass, and when it comes time for Communion, let’s approach the altar with joy in our hearts and gratitude for this gift of the Eucharist.

Flowers on the Blessed Mother Altar are in Memory of Fabian Raymond Anderwald Jr.

Georgia Southern Campus Ministry

It is the mission of the Catholic Eagles to engage in bible studies, fellowship, apologetics, and to help them get involved at Mass. St. Matthew Parish supports this effort by offering a 6:00 PM University Mass each Sunday evening during Fall and Spring semesters. Students are offered a free home-cooked meal after every University Mass, which provides a great opportunity for the missionaries to meet students and invite them to bible studies and other events. This Mass is student-centered, with students serving as lectors, Extraordinary Eucharist ministers, ushers and in the choir. We also offer a weekly Holy Hour on Tuesday evenings so students can come spend an hour with Jesus. For more information go to www.saintmatthewparish.com or call 912-681-6726.
