PRESENTATION OF THE GIFTS
5:30/11:30: My Song is Love Unknown (Solo)

CHORAL ANTHEM (10AM):
My song is love unknown, My Saviour’s love to me;
Love to the loveless shown, That they might lovely be.
O who am I, That for my sake My Lord should take Fruit flesh and die? He came from His bleft throne
Salvation to bestow; But men made strange, and none
The longed-for Christ would know: But O! my Friend.
My Friend indeed, Who at my need His life did spend.
Sometimes they strew His way, And His sweet praises
sing; Resounding all the day Hosannas to their King:
Then “Crucify!” is all their breath, And for His death
they thirst and cry. Why, what hath my Lord done?
What makes this rage and spite? He made the lame to run, He gave the blind their sight, Sweet injuries!
Yet they at these Themselves displease, and gainst Him rise.

Text: Samuel Crossman (1623-1683)
Music: John Ireland (1879-1962)

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

When the Lord appears, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. 1 John 3:2

MARIAN ANTIPHON  Salve Regina 1008

HYMN:  We Walk By Faith 848

Music Notes: My Song is Love Unknown

Born in 1879 in England, John Ireland was trained as a musician at the Royal Academy of Music as an organist. In 1904 Ireland accepted a position as the Organist at St. Luke’s Chelsea, where he remained until 1926. During his time at St. Luke’s, Ireland began teaching at the Royal Academy of Music from 1923-1939. Ireland is best known for his Song Cycles set to Shakespeare, Blake, Hardy, and many other English Poets. The tune for the hymn “My Song Is Love Unknown” was written in 1918 on a small piece of paper while having lunch with a friend; it was written in less than 15 minutes. The hymn is sung in churches throughout the English-speaking world, as is his Communion Service in C major. His works have been recorded and performed by the Choir of Westminster Abbey, the Choir of Wells Cathedral and many others.

From time to time we will hear about the “80/20 rule,” by which it seems that 20 percent of a group does 80 percent of the work, or give 80 percent of the donations. What are we to make of this “90/10” situation, in which only one out of ten lepers returns to give thanks for being healed by Jesus? Maybe our prayer today can be for gratitude so great that it upsets all the numbers.

It is a spiritual drama of moral struggles concerning faith, doubt, and reason, set against a modernizing Russia. Discussions start on October 13th in the Parish Hall Library from 10:15 to 12:00.
