SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

PRELUDE
Adagio from Symphony No. 2
Vierne

INTROIT
Domine, in tua misericordia
Mode V

O Lord, I trust in your merciful love. My heart will rejoice in your salvation.
I will sing to the Lord who has been bountiful with me. Psalm 12

HYMN
MIT FREUDEN ZART

1. Sing praise to God who reigns above,
The God of power, the God of all creation,
The God of love, the God of our salvation;
With healing balm my soul he fills, And every faithless
All is right: To God all praise and glory.

2. What God's almighty power has made,
By morning glow or evening shade
His watchful eye ne'er sleeping;
In the kingdom of his might, Lo! all is just and
He a lone: To God all praise and glory.

3. Let all who name Christ's holy name,
All you who own his power, pro claim
To loud the wondrous story!
Cast each false idol from its throne, The Lord is God, and

GREETING
PENITENTIAL ACT

GLORIA

A New Mass for Congregations

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glori-fy you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heav'n-ly King, O God, al-might-y Fa-ther.

Cantor/Choir: Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you a lone are the Ho-ly One, you a lone are the Lord, you a lone are the Most High, Je-sus...Christ, with the Ho-ly Spir-it, in the glo-ry of God the Fa-ther. A- men.

READING I

Samuel 26:2, 7–9, 12–13, 22–23

Though the Lord delivered you into my grasp, I would not harm you.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

The Lord is kind and merciful.
READING II
I Corinthians 15:45-49

Just as we have borne the image of the earthly one,
we shall also bear the image of the heavenly one.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION
Vulpius

GOSPEL

Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

HOMILY

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. (rise)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

UNIVERSAL PRAYER

DIOCESAN PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O God, hear our prayer and let our cry come unto You. Bless our Diocese of Savannah with many vocations to the Priesthood, Diaconate, and Religious Life.

Give the men and women You call the light to understand Your gift and the love to follow always in the footsteps of Your priestly Son.
PREPARATION OF THE ALTAR

Ubi caritas

Where charity and love are, God is there. Christ’s love has gathered us into one.
Let us rejoice and be pleased in Him. Let us fear, and let us love the living God.
And may we love each other with a sincere heart. 10th century French

SANCTUS

Mass for the City

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna, hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest. Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest.

MYSTERIUM FIDEI

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

GREAT AMEN

Amen, amen, amen.

AGNUS DEI

Cantor: Lamb of God,

1. you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

3. you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.
COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Narrabo omnia
Mode II

I will recount all your wonders, I will rejoice in you and be glad, and sing psalms to your name, O Most High. Psalm 79

COMMUNION MOTET

Tantum ergo
Duruflé

Therefore so great a Sacrament let us fall down and worship, and let the old law give way to a new rite,
and let faith stand forward to make good the defects of sense. Thomas Aquinas

FINAL BLESSING AND DISMISSAL

HYMN

IN BABILONE

1. There's a wide-ness in God's mer-cy Like the wide-ness of the sea;
2. For the love of God is broad-er Than the meas-ures of our mind,

There's a kind-ness in God's jus-tice Which is more than lib-er-ty.
And the heart of the e-ter-nal Is most won-der-ful by kind.

There is plen-ti-ful re-demp-tion In the blood that has been shed;
If our love were but more sim-ple We should take him at his word,

There is joy for all the mem-bers In the sor-rows of the Head.
And our lives would be thanks-giv-ing For the good-ness of our Lord.

The Introit and Communio Chants

The Introit (Entrance) and Communio (Communion) chants belong to those parts of the Mass called the Propers. That is, those parts of the Mass that change according to their liturgical date. The other musical parts of the Mass, called the Ordinary, do not change. These are things like the Kyrie, Gloria, and Sanctus.

Here at the Cathedral, the proper Introit and Communio are sung each week by a cantor or by a small group from the choir. These chants are some of the oldest extant sacred music in Christianity. For example, today’s Introit, Domine, in tua misericordia, exists in manuscript form in various European libraries dating before 1200 AD. This is just the date it was written down in a rudimentary notation; the melody probably existed before 900 AD and was passed down through aural tradition.

The texts for these propers are most often drawn from the Psalms. For example, today’s Introit comes from Psalm 12, and the Communio is from Psalm 9. In most cases, these are the texts that have been assigned by the Church to specific liturgical dates for hundreds of years. Today, in churches around the world, the faithful are praying Psalm 12 for the Introit and Psalm 9 at Communion; we are connected to our fellow Catholics in the history, the music, and the texts.

In addition to setting a solemn tone for the beginning of Mass and at the distribution of Communion, these ancient melodies connect us to our forebears in faith and make us sharers in the amazing patrimony of sacred music that has been passed down to us. As Catholics, this is our music!

Jesus teaches his disciples the Golden Rule in the passage we hear today: “Do to others as you would have them do to you.” But he goes on to require more: “Love your enemies and do good to them...expecting nothing back.” Today let us listen for what God is calling us to do for the people in our lives, both those who treat us kindly in return and those who do not.

Cathedral Ministries
Have you ever thought about being an usher?

MINISTRY OF USHERS
The Cathedral Usher Corps is comprised of dedicated men and women who serve the Cathedral in the following ways:

1. Greet parishioners and visitors alike in a friendly manner.
2. Distribute bulletins and programs at weekend services.
3. Make every effort to seat those standing in the rear of the church.
4. Take up all collections and secure the money.
5. Monitor the lines for communion and ensure the safety of all as they exit the pews.
6. Straighten the missals, collect left over bulletins, and straighten the pews at the end of the service.
7. Answer as many questions as possible based on the usher’s knowledge of the Cathedral.

To qualify to be an usher, male or female, one must be a registered member of the Cathedral Parish, 18 years or older, attend Virtus Training Classes, and submit to a background check by the Diocese of Savannah.

All ushers serve on a rotation basis, depending on the Mass team they are assigned. Generally one serves every other week, and substitutes are available when needed.

If interested, contact Charlie Ganem, head usher, at 912-507-2654 or charlieganem@gmail.com.

Respect Life Ministry Opportunity
During Lent each of us should be seeking ways to grow closer to our Lord and Savior. This Lent, all parishioners are again invited to participate in the spring cycle of 40 DAYS FOR LIFE by praying for just one hour a week at the local abortion clinic. You may wonder, why should I do that? Simply recall Jesus’ words: “Let the little children come unto me....” How can we respect Jesus’ wishes and, at the same time, ignore the ravages of the abortion industry? I ask you to consider joining with fellow Christians to pray on 34th Street one day a week for the six weeks of Lent. That is a sacrifice of just six hours to honor Jesus and Mary. Look for more information in the bulletin next weekend.
