TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Prelude

Adagio from Symphony No. 2
Vierne

Introit

Within your will, O Lord, all things are established, and there is none that can resist your will.
For you have made all things, heaven and earth, and all that is held within the circle of heaven; you are Lord of all. Esther 13

Hymin

FOREST GREEN

1. I sing the mighty pow’r of God
   That made the mountains rise,
   That spread the flowing seas abroad,
   And built the lofty skies.

2. I sing the goodness of the Lord
   That formed creation with a word,
   And clouds arise, and tempests blow,
   By order from your care.

3. There’s not a plant or flower below
   But makes your glories known;
   The moon shines full at God’s command
   And all the stars obey.

Hymn

PENITENTIAL ACT

Missa Cum iubilo
Vatican IX

1., 3. Lord have mercy. 2. Christ have mercy.
GLORIA

Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and on earth peace to peo-ple of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we a-dore you, we glo-ri-fy you, we give you thanks for your great glo-ry, Lord God, heav’n-ly King, O God, al-might-y Fa-ther.

Cantor/Choir: Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you a-lone are the Ho-ly One, you a-lone are the Lord,
you a-lone are the Most High, Je-sus Christ, with the Ho-ly Spir-it, in the glo-ry of God the Fa-ther. A-men.

COLLECT (OPENING PRAYER)

READING I

How long, O LORD? I cry for help but you do not listen! I cry out to you, “Violence!” but you do not intervene. Why do you let me see ruin; why must I look at misery? Destruction and violence are before me; there is strife, and clamorous discord. Then the LORD answered me and said: Write down the vision clearly upon the tablets, so that one can read it readily.
For the vision still has its time, presses on to fulfillment, and will not disappoint; if it delays, wait for it, it will surely come, it will not be late. The rash one has no integrity; but the just one, because of his faith, shall live.
RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Come, let us sing joyfully to the LORD; let us acclaim the Rock of our salvation. Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us joyfully sing psalms to him. R. Come, let us bow down in worship; let us kneel before the LORD who made us.

For he is our God, and we are the people he shepherds, the flock he guides. R.

Oh, that today you would hear his voice: “Harden not your hearts as at Meribah, as in the day of Massah in the desert, Where your fathers tempted me; they tested me though they had seen my works.” R.

READING II

Beloved: I remind you, to stir into flame the gift of God that you have through the imposition of my hands. For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control. So do not be ashamed of your testimony to our Lord, nor of me, a prisoner for his sake; but bear your share of hardship for the gospel with the strength that comes from God. Take as your norm the sound words that you heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Guard this rich trust with the help of the Holy Spirit that dwells within us.

2 Timothy 1:6–8, 13–14

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL

The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith.” The Lord replied, “If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you. ”Who among you would say to your servant who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, ‘Come here immediately and take your place at table’? Would he not rather say to him, ‘Prepare something for me to eat. Put on your apron and wait on me while I eat and drink. You may eat and drink when I am finished’? Is he grateful to that servant because he did what was commanded? So should it be with you. When you have done all you have been commanded, say, ‘We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.”

Luke 17:5–10

HOMILY
CREED
I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. (rise)
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

UNIVERSAL PRAYER

DIOCESAN PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS
O God, hear our prayer and let our cry come unto You.
Bless our Diocese of Savannah with many vocations to the Priesthood, Diaconate, and Religious Life.
Give the men and women You call the light to understand Your gift and the love to follow always in the footsteps of Your priestly Son.

PREPARATION OF THE ALTAR
My soul doth magnify the Lord: and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour. For he hath regarded: the lowliness of his handmaid. For behold, from henceforth: all generations shall call me blessed. For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is his Name. And his mercy is on them that fear him: throughout all generations. He hath showed strength with his arm: he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He hath put down the mighty from their seat: and hath exalted the humble and meek. He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath sent empty away. He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel: as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed, for ever. Luke 1

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

In salutari tuo
Mode I

My soul aspires after your salvation; I hope in your word; when will you judge those who persecute me?
The wicked are persecuting me; come to my assistance, O Lord my God. Psalm 118

COMMUNION MOTET

Tantum ergo
French

Therefore so great a Sacrament let us fall down and worship,
And let the old law give way to a new rite,
And let faith stand forward to make good the defects of sense.
To the Father and the Son be praise and joy,
Health, honour and virtue and blessing,
And to him proceeding from both be equal praise. Amen. St. Thomas Aquinas

FINAL BLESSING AND DISMISSAL
HYMN

1. O Christ the great foundation
   On which your people stand
2. Baptized in one confession,
   One church in all the earth,
   To preach your true salvation
   In ev'ry age and land:
   Pour out your holy Spirit
   To make us strong and pure,
   To keep the faith unbroken
   As long as worlds endure.

By grace we were invited,
By grace we make you known.

POSTLUDE

A NOTE ON TODAY’S MUSIC

Traditionally, we place more emphasis on our devotion to the Blessed Mother in the months of October and May. The music at Mass reflects this in subtle ways. First, the settings of the Kyrie and Agnus Dei are taken from the Messe Cum iubilo, an ancient setting of the Mass dating from the 11th century. The Church prescribes its use for Marian Feasts and Solemnities.

The Cathedral Choir will also sing one Marian motet each week at the 10:00 and 11:30 Masses. For example, today’s Offertory is a setting of the Magnificat by Herbert Howells (d. 1983). Later in the month, settings of the Ave Maria and other Marian texts will be heard. In these small ways, the music at Mass deepens our understanding of these devotions and keeps alive the musical traditions of the Church.

Finally, today’s Communion Motet is a setting of Tantum ergo by American composer Jessica French (b. 1984). This brand new composition is a welcome addition to the repertoire and offers a fresh perspective on the traditional Aquinas text.

Flowers on the Blessed Mother Altar are in Memory of Heidi Carroll

Often we feel that our faith is weak, unable to overcome all our doubts or give us the confidence to face our trials. Jesus’ closest friends, his apostles, may have felt the same way, as today we hear them ask him to increase their faith. Jesus responds by issuing them a challenge, telling them that even a small amount of faith has the power to do great things. Let us accept that challenge today, recognizing that our faith, however uncertain, has brought us here in the first place to worship the Lord and celebrate the Eucharist.
Catholic Leadership Principles in the Workplace

Does our faith matter in the workplace? Do we believe that there are things that pertain to our faith that just don’t pertain in the workplace? Deacon Joseph Mullin will present a two part class on leadership based on the classic Four Cardinal Virtues. Each virtue will have a corresponding and challenging “Examination of Conscience” assessing how we might live such a particular virtue in the workplace. The class is based on his previous service, to include knowledge gained and mistakes made, both as a decorated officer in the CIA’s Senior Intelligence Service and as a principal officer with private sector firms in Washington D.C. The first class is on Thursday, October 13 and the second class is on Thursday, October 20. Both classes are from 7:00 - 8:00 PM in the Parish Center.
